Summer 2017

Thank you for your interest in joining Congregation Emanu-El. We hope that you will make us your Jewish communal and spiritual home. We are a place to discover why being Jewish really matters, a place to deepen your commitment to a Jewish way of being.

Congregation Emanu-El is open and inclusive and we are proud of our diversity. We welcome Jews by choice, parents raising Jewish children, interfaith families and partners, as well as Jews of all backgrounds, ethnicities, sexual orientation and gender identity.

Our congregation has many delightful events. We are led in services by Rabbi Tamar Malino. Her warmth, knowledge and experience enriches our lives and community.

During the next year, we will continue with our many services, holiday events, and life cycle celebrations led by Rabbi Tamar Malino. In addition, we have new activities planned—a film night, a pray and hike day (short service followed by a hike), expansion of our religious school to include preschool at holiday events, and a 10-session Tuesday night adult Torah study in the spring. We are exploring Tikkun Olam events in collaboration with the larger Jewish community of Spokane. We look forward to seeing you at all of these.

Our fiscal year is from July through June. Attached you will find a 2017 - 18 enrollment form for new members.

- Please complete all parts of the form, including your Yahrzeit information.
- Congregation Emanu-El asks everyone to contribute $900 per member family so that we may rent our facilities, pay our rabbi, and offer Kiddush, make copies, etc. At the same time, we welcome everyone regardless of ability to pay.
- We also encourage you to contribute to one of our funds to help keep our congregation running smoothly. The annual contribution covers about 50% of our expenses. Only through additional donations from our congregants can we function smoothly. Our congregation's financial sustainability is dependent on the generosity of those who can afford it.

Congregation Emanu-El strives to be a diverse, warm and hospitable place for you to build community, form new bonds of friendship, and reach out to help make our world a better place. We endeavor to create meaningful Jewish experiences for congregants of all ages. Your membership helps strengthen our local Jewish community and adds your voice, through our congregation, to the national American Jewish movement.

All of us here look forward to getting to know you. If you know in advance that you're coming to services or an event, we'd be delighted to arrange for someone to sit with you at services, introduce you to other members, and show you around. Just contact Nan Smith at (509) 993-5384 or nzackanrbd@gmail.com.

We look forward to seeing you this coming year.

Warm regards,

Fran Snavely, President of the Board

Rabbi Tamar Malino
