2018-2019

Thank you for your interest in joining Congregation Emanu-El (CEE). We hope you will make us your Jewish communal and spiritual home! CEE is a place to deepen your commitment to Judaism and Jewish culture and history, to build community, form new bonds of friendship, and reach out together to make our world a better place.

CEE is open and inclusive, and we are proud of our diversity. We welcome all Jews, including interfaith families and partners as well as individuals interested in Reform Judaism.

Our congregation has many delightful events. We are led in services, holidays and life cycle celebrations by Rabbi Tamar Malino, whose warmth, knowledge, and experience enriches our lives and community. During the upcoming year, we will continue to hold a Reform Erev Shabbat service and a Shabbat morning service on separate weekends each month. We will also continue to hold some joint services in collaboration with Temple Beth Shalom (TBS) for Erev Shabbat as well as during the High Holy Days

Additionally, all CEE members have access to the TBS adult and children's religious education programs at TBS member rates. A schedule of all services and events is available on our website at:

<https://spokaneemanu-el.org/cee-calendar/>

Attached you will find a 2018-2019 enrollment form for new members.

- Please complete all parts of the form, including your Yahrzeit information.
- The current cost to run our congregation is around $1,100 per family based upon our rent, rabbi contract, Kiddush lunches, etc. Please also know that we welcome everyone, regardless of ability to pay.

As you decide on your contribution, we ask that you consider the value of the congregation to you, what it costs in real dollars to support the congregation, and how much you can afford. Whether you come to a congregational event once a year or once a week, the congregation's expenses remain the same. Each of us can come when we choose because members volunteer and pay the expenses throughout the year. Your membership helps strengthen our local Jewish community and adds your voice, through our congregation, to the national Reform Jewish movement.

All of us here look forward to getting to know you. If you know in advance that you're coming to services or an event, we'd be delighted to arrange for someone to sit with you at services, introduce you to other members, and show you around. Just contact Joan Berkowitz at (509) 714-3123 or e-mail her at joanb@spokaneemanu-el.org.

We look forward to seeing you this coming year.

Warm regards,

Diana Koorkanian-Sauders, Board President

Rabbi Tamar Malino
