2025–2026

Thank you for your interest in joining Congregation Emanu-El (CEE). We hope you will make us your Jewish communal and spiritual home! CEE is a place to deepen your commitment to Judaism and Jewish culture and history, to build community, form new bonds of friendship, and come together to make our world a better place through our social justice and Tikkun Olam work.

CEE is open and inclusive, and we are proud of our diversity. We welcome all Jews, including interfaith families and partners and individuals interested in the conversion process through the Reform Movement.

We are led in services, holidays, and life cycle celebrations by Rabbi Tamar Malino, whose warmth, knowledge, and experience enriches our lives and community. We hold monthly Reform Shabbat services and joint services in collaboration with Temple Beth Shalom (TBS) as well as Reform and joint High Holy Day services and events.

All CEE members have access to the TBS adult and children's religious education programs at TBS member rates. In addition, CEE offers financial assistance to member families in good standing, who wish to enroll their children in Jewish education through the Midrasha program. A schedule of all services and events is available on our website at: <https://spokaneemanu-el.org/cee-calendar/>

Attached you will find a 2025–2026 enrollment form for new members. Please complete all parts of the form, including your Yahrzeit information and Hebrew name(s). Feel free to mail or email this fillable form back to us at: admin@spokaneemanu-el.org

The current cost to run our congregation is approximately $1,400 annually per family, based upon our rent, rabbi contract, and other expenses. As you decide on your contribution, we ask that you consider the value of the congregation to you, what it costs to support the congregation, and how much you can afford.

Whether you are able to give $36 a year or $3,600 a year - your membership contributions help strengthen our local Jewish community and allows us to maintain this vibrant, caring, and progressive Reform congregation here in Spokane! Each of us can attend services and events when we choose because of how many of our members volunteer and contribute throughout the year.

All of us here look forward to getting to know you. If you know in advance that you're coming to services or an event, we'd be delighted to arrange for someone to sit with you at services, introduce you to other members, and show you around. Please contact us at admin@spokaneemanu-el.org or leave us a phone message at 509-717-3233 if you have any questions.

We look forward to seeing you this coming year!

Warm regards,

Meghan Pinch & Jody Shapiro, Co-Presidents

Rabbi Tamar Malino
